

A symposium sponsored by the South Carolina Soil and Water Conservation Society

THE FUTURE OF RENEWABLE ENERGY in South Carolina

South Carolina Chapter
Soil & Water
Conservation
Society

Thanks to our sponsors!

Providing financial services to rural America for 90 years

John W. Parris

Von P. Snelgrove

January 3, 2007
Myrtle Beach, South Carolina

10:00 a.m.- 11:30 a.m.
Registration

Kensington

11:30 a.m.
Opening Session and Lunch
Presiding

Windsor

Von P. Snelgrove, SC SWCS Chapter President

Invocation
Reverend Tommy Knotts, Aiken, SC

Luncheon Speakers

Alan Weber, MARC-IV, LLC, Consulting, Columbia, Missouri

Erica Hartwig, Renewable Energy Coordinator, SC Energy Office, Columbia, SC

1:00 p.m.
Biodiesel Use for Agriculture

Kensington G

Aaron Wood, Soybean Board, SC Department of Agriculture

Green Power
Alma Evans, Santee Cooper

Integrating Biodiesel into South Carolina's Agriculture Industry
Flint Holbrook, Clover High School FFA member

2:30 p.m.
Break— Check out the exhibitors!

Kensington

3:00 p.m.
USDA Financial Incentives for Use of Biodiesel and E-85
Jeff Lucas, District Conservationist, USDA-NRCS, Dorchester County

Producing Woody Biomass for Energy
Mark D. Coleman, Biological Scientist, USDA-Forest Service, Aiken County

Producer Perspective
Claude Elmore, Farmer, Lee County

4:00 p.m.
Panel Discussion Q&A

Wrap Up
Von P. Snelgrove

There will be a Soil & Water Conservation Society sponsored Awards Banquet on Thursday evening at Bennett's Seafood at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are $25 at the registration desk.*